Lou is throwing a ball against the wall in her backyard.

Lou is a tall seven-year-old girl with brown hair. She always wears a purple shirt with a red heart. Lou is good at swimming and walking around. She is afraid of wolves, and she really wants to have a unicorn.

Lou's parents tell Lou that unicorns are not real. She feels sad, her smile goes down and her eyes tear up.

Lou knows unicorns are real, even if her parents don't believe. She is going to go and find one. She goes into a forest. It is sunny and birds are singing. She knows unicorns like trees so she looks all over but can't find any unicorns.

She knows they like to eat grass so Lou walks until she finds a big beautiful green field that would be perfect for unicorns. But there are no unicorns there either! Lou is getting angry because she can't find herself a unicorn. She knows they are real!

Unicorns are also sometimes seen in playgrounds. So Lou checks the playground near her house. She spies something purple on the slide. As she gets nearer she sees it is a baby unicorn! Lou holds out a carrot and the little unicorn follows her all the way home.

Only Lou can see the unicorn. Her parents can't see anything but they believe her. They buy a box of Lucky Charms to feed the baby Unicorn and let it sleep in Lou's room. Lou is so happy she finally has her very own unicorn that she jumps on its back and they fly around!

The End.

About the Author

My name is Levi. I am 6 years old and in grade 1. I really like to play with my big cousins. My favourite book is Bucket Filling from A to Z. If I could do anything, I would watch race cars on TV.

Story Studio inspires, educates and empowers youth to be great storytellers, transforming lives and strengthening communities. We create innovative, 'fun-first' workshops that develops narrative capacity in youth, and celebrate young writers by crafting beautiful publications from their words.

We are a registered charity (807121504RR0001) based in British Columbia and rely entirely on grants, donations and volunteers. Learn more at storystudio.ca
