

StorySheet: DETAILS MATTER

7

Now find a sentence in your story that you can stretch. More adjectives will give your reader more details. Use the adjective bank below to add details to your sentences.

As you describe the important parts of your story think about how to bring them to life. You want to make sure your descriptions are useful. Try the description below. Write one golden description for your story.

storystudio.ca

Useful descriptions provide important information about people and places:

The tree was as tall as a building.

Golden descriptions make parts of your story come to life:

The trees stood like soldiers, protecting the forest animals with their thick strong branches.

Give it a try. Describe the object below:

The taste of a perfect orange

My Golden description for the perfect orange:

Next ask a friend or grown-up to describe the taste of a perfect orange:

Combine your ideas to create an unforgettable golden description:

Nouns are words that name a place, a person, a thing, or an idea.

An adjective is a word that describes a noun.

Adjective Bank

Adventurous
Rough
Outgoing
Tall
Quiet
Nervous
Kind

Dusty
Big Funny
Comfortable
Wicked
Quick
Noisy

Heavy
Embarrassed
Incredible
Fearless
Dark
Worried
Rotten

Large
Huge
Magical
Juicy
Gentle
Determined
Young

Odd
Lonely
Proud
Mysterious
Jagged
Greedy
Charming

Date:

Name: