

A Story Studio Anthology
by Young Authors
(Ages 5-13)

GRAPHIC STORIES

Story Studio is a charity that inspires, educates and empowers youth to be great storytellers, transforming lives and strengthening communities. We create innovative, 'fun-first' workshops that develops narrative capacity in youth, and celebrate young writers by crafting beautiful publications from their words.

This anthology is composed of stories written by children and youth across Canada, between the ages of 5 and 13 as a result of our March 2022 creative writing contest. The task this month was to write their own creative graphic story using one 8.5 x 11 page.
