Flame the dragon was in the magical forest trying to find the Magic Spring.

Flame the dragon is good at magic. Flame is afraid of spiders. The Magic Spring is in the magic forest. It is full of birds and flowers. Flame can hear the wind rustling through the trees. Flame loves the magical forest.

Flame was searching through the magical forest, but she had no idea where the Magic Spring was. Flame was annoyed. She had heard the legend of the Magic Spring from her parents, so she knew it was in the forest somewhere. The Magic Spring can instantly heal any sickness or injury that the drinker has. Flame's village was sick and the only cure was the Magic Spring, so she had to find it.

Flame tried following a map, but the map wasn't a map of the magical forest! So she tried asking the birds to help, but the birds just flew away because she was a dragon!

Then Flame saw a spider. She took a deep breath and walked over to it.

“Hello,” she said quietly to the spider. “Do you know where the Magic Spring is?”

“Yes of course I do, all spiders know!”

“Can you take me to the Magic Spring?” she asked.

“Yes!” the spider said.

Flame followed the spider through the forest. Eventually, they made their way through one final thick grove and Flame could see the Magic Spring!

Flame was very happy. She went straight to the spring to collect the water. Then she flew out of the spring and went straight back to her village without spilling any of the water. Flame was so happy to be able to save her village. Everyone thanked her for finding the Magic Spring. They celebrated by throwing her a big party.

The End.
