Lincoln was fighting goblins near the caves and mountains.

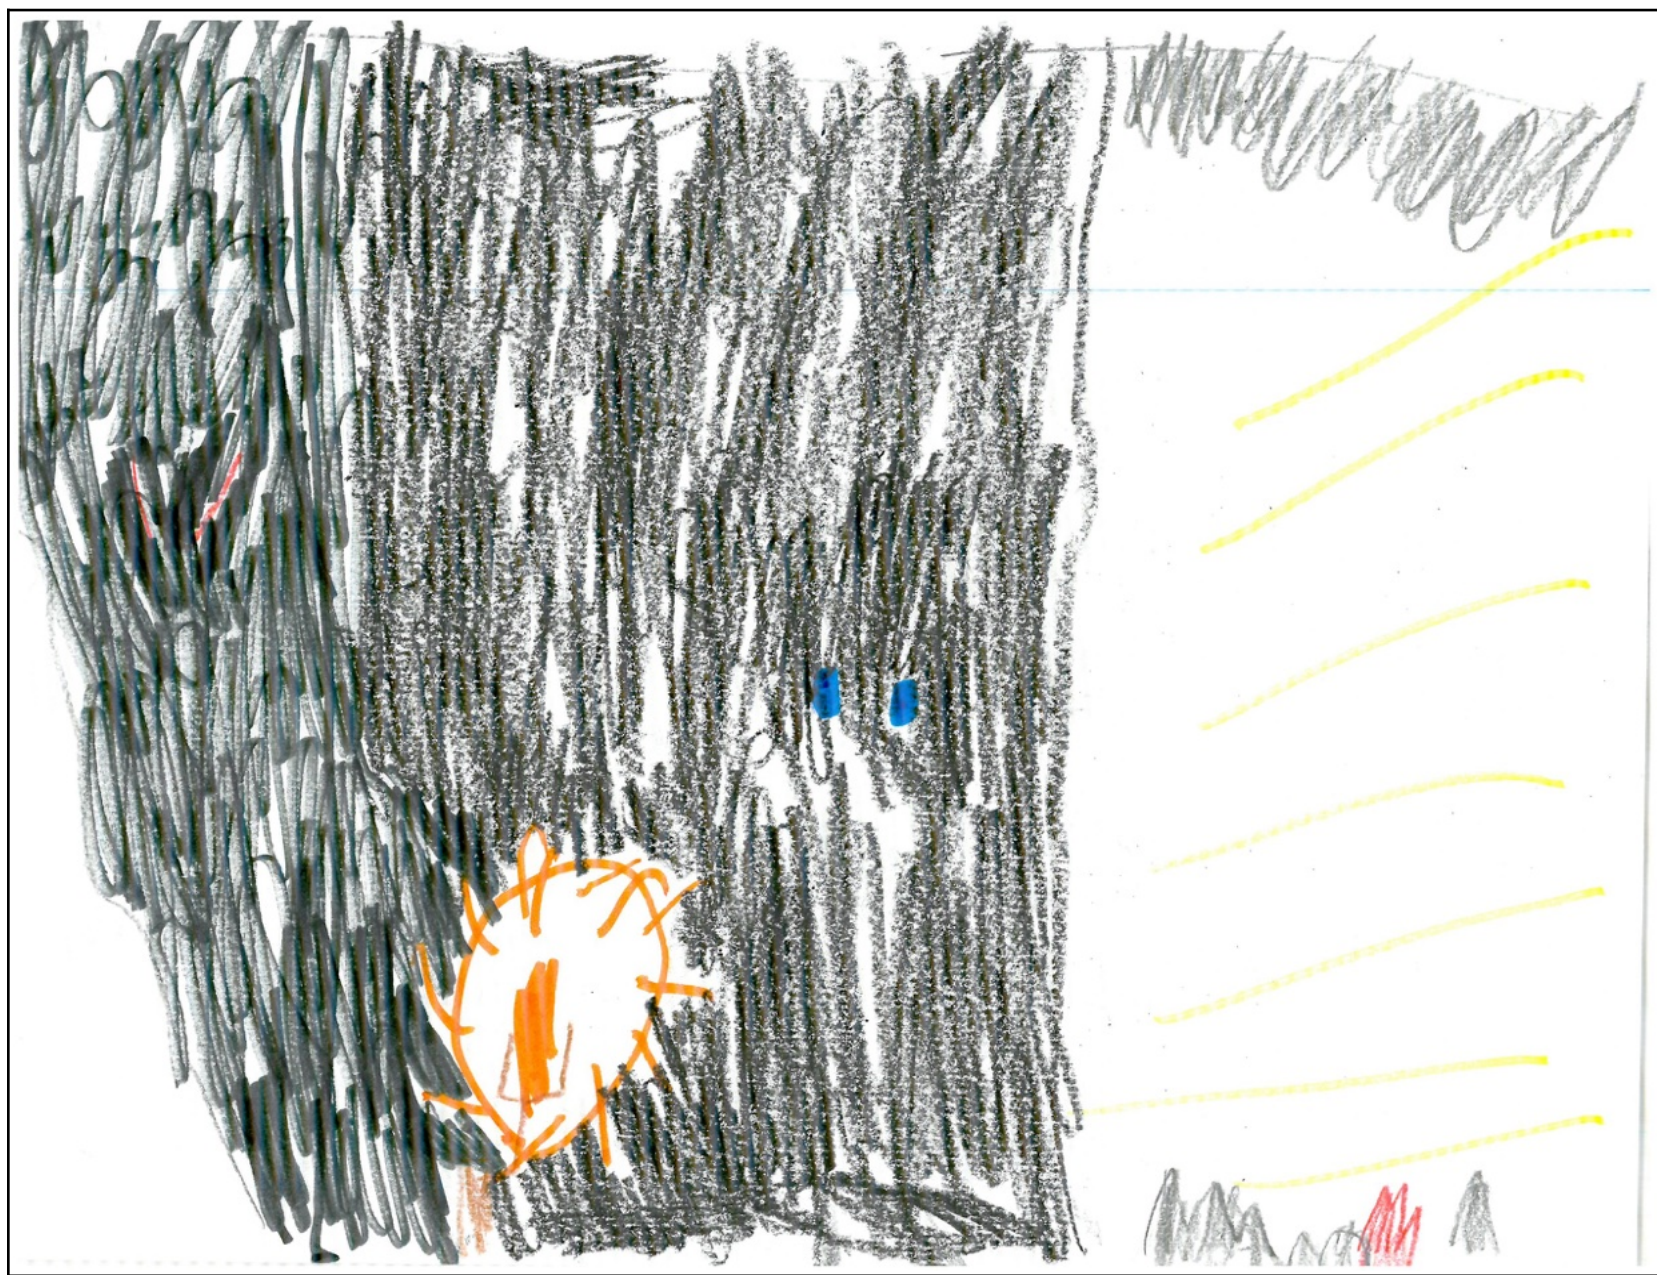

Lincoln is a good fighter. He is best at slaying dragons. He lives on Earth, but he was sent on a mission to get something from the Land of Terror. He was able to retrieve it, but then he was stopped by goblins that he needed to destroy!

He managed to get past the goblins and ran into a cave.

He noticed that the goblins weren't following him. Then he looked down and realized the gem he retrieved was missing! Lincoln felt suspicious of the goblins.

So Lincoln went back outside the cave. He saw a sign that said, "Bag Robber Cave".

Lincoln said, “Rats!” He needed to find his gem!

He went back inside the cave to look. He searched high and low but still couldn't find the purple gem. So Lincoln used his dagger to hit the rocks and walls in the cave, trying to find a secret door or hiding spot. But there were no loose rocks or hiding spots that Lincoln could find. He was still feeling suspicious, and he was determined to find his gem.

Handwritten scribbles at the top of the page.

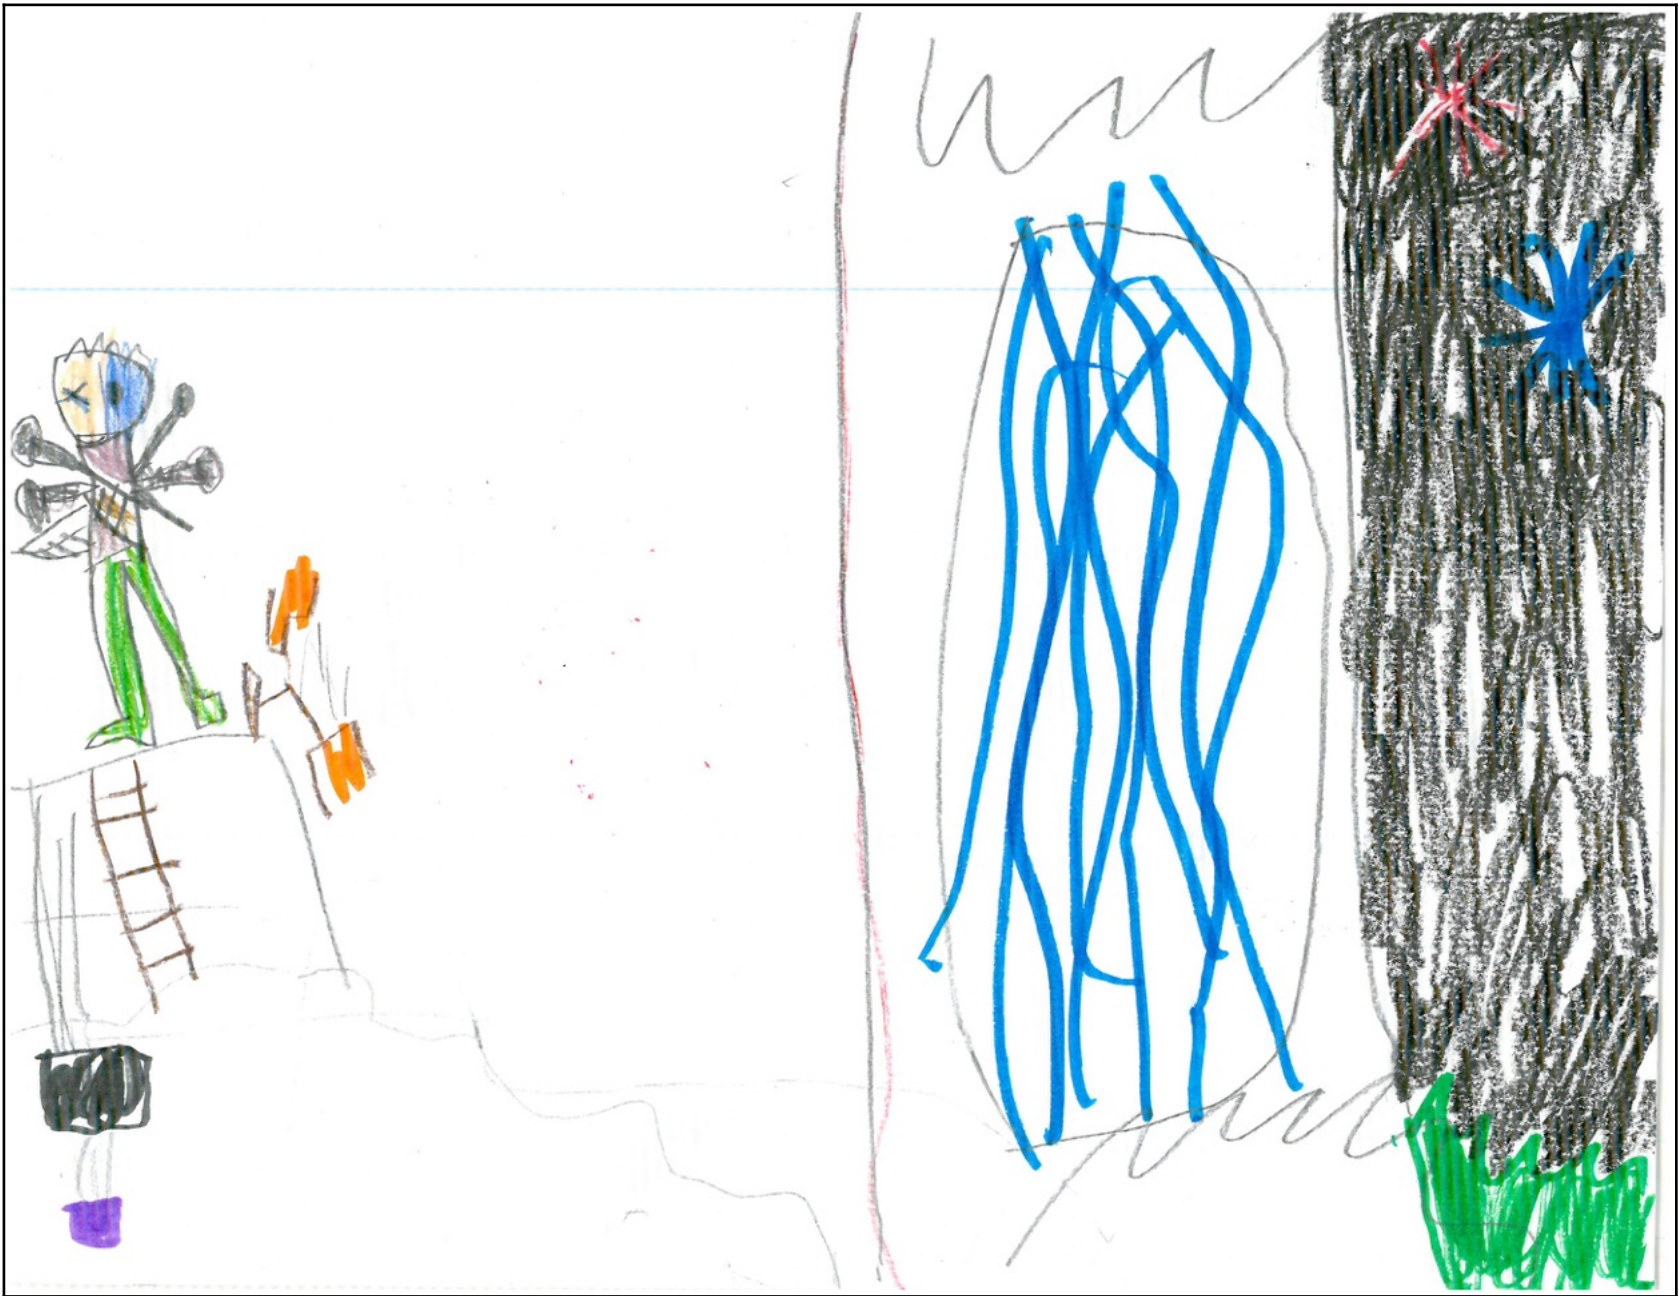

Finally, he hit the torch on the cave wall. It was a lever!

The rocks fell out and the purple gem fell out after.

Lincoln was so excited to have found his gem.

He went back through the world portal and reached his home. He celebrated with fireworks!

The End.
