

Super Melon and the Pink Butterfly

by
Sadie

Published in Victoria, British Columbia

Story Studio Writing Society

2022

Super Melon was chasing a pink butterfly. He had followed the butterfly all the way to Fruit Park. It was a busy day at the park because it was butterfly season. There was a rainbow and one hundred butterflies fluttering in the sky.

Super Melon wanted to be friends with a pink butterfly, but the only pink butterfly she could find, did not want to be friends. Super Melon felt sad.

So Super Melon decided to make a gift for the pink butterfly. He made a pink bracelet. Super Melon tried giving the butterfly the bracelet, but the pink butterfly couldn't land!

Then Super Melon tried climbing up the slide to get closer to the pink butterfly. But when he got to the top, the butterfly flew away! Super Melon felt sad.

The pink butterfly was able to land on a roof nearby. All of a sudden it started to pour rain. Her wings were wet and it made it hard for her to fly. Super Melon heard her cry for help. He put on his cape and flew up to save the pink butterfly.

The pink butterfly was so happy to be saved. They became friends. Super Melon was happy, too. Together the two friends went for ice cream.

The End.

About the Author

My name is Sadie. I am 7 years old and in grade 2. I really like to make crafts. My favourite book is Pippa Longstocking. If I could do anything, I would be a fairy.